A Captive Emperor.

In Prince Bismarck's letters to his wife we find the following details of the capture of the Emperor Napoleon III after Sedau, in which will be seen the actual condition of things stripped of the glamour of historic pedantry:

"VENDRESSE, September 3, 1870. "Dear Heart—the day before yester-day before dawn I left my quarters here, returned to-day, and have in the interim witnessed the great natile of Sedan, in which we made about thirty thousand prisoners, and threw the rest of the french army—we had been pursuing from Bar ie Duc—into the fortress, where, with the Emperor, they were obliged to surrender. At 5 o'clock yesterday morning, after having till 1 o'clock discussed with Moltke and the French Generals the terms of the capitulation. lation, I was awakened by General Reille, whom I know, to tell me that Napoleon wished to see me. Unwashed and without breakfast I rode toward Se-dan, and found the Emperor in an open carriage with three sides-de-camp, and three on horseback, on the highway this side of Sedan. I dismounted, sainted him as politely as at the Tuileries, and asked what were his commands. He desired to see the King. I informed him, in accordance with the truth, that His Majesty had his quarters three miles off, at the place where I am now writing. at the place where I am now writing. To Napoleou's question where he was to go, I offered him, as I did not know the neighborhood, my quarters at Donchery, a small place close to Sedan. He accepted the offer, and rode, accompanied by the six Frenchmen, by me and Charles, who, in the meantime, had followed me through the solitary morning hours toward our side. solitary morning hours toward our side. Be ore arriving at Doncuery he regretted his decision, on account of the crowd that might be expected, and asked whether he might alight at a lonely workman's cottage by the road side. I told Charles to inspect it, who reported that it was poor and dirty. N'importe, said N., and we ascended a narrow, rickety staircase. We sat an hour in a chamber ten feet square, with a deal table and two rushbottomed cnairs; the others were below. A mighty contrast to our last inter-view in 67, in the Tuileries. Our conversation was difficult, if I was not to touch on things which should not painfully affect the man so terribly cast down by God's powerful hand. I had sent Charles to letch officers from the sent Charies to tetch officers from the town, and to request Motike to come. We then dispatched one of the former to reconnoiter, and discovered at half-a mile's distance, at Fresnois, a small chateau in the park. Thither I accompanied the Emperor with an escort of life currassiers, sent for in the meanwhile, and there we concluded with Commanding General Wimpffen the capitulation, in consequence of which from forty thousand to sixty thousand Frenchmen, with all to sixty thousand Frenchmen, with all their baggage, became our prisoners. Yesternay and the previous day cost France one hundred thousand men and an Emperor. Early this morning the latter, with all his attendants, horses and carriages, started for Williamshone,

An Intelligent Actress.

A good example of the way society plays have lowered the standard of acquaintance with dramatic literature among the profession is shown in the following true anecdote:

Mr. Gotthold, of Pittsburg, had last year among his stock a lady of fair dramatic talent, who aspired to hold a prominent position. When Mrs. Agnes Booth came along, "King John" was put up. The cast was, as usual, posted in the green-room, and this lady went to inspect it.

The room was unoccupied, but Mr. Gotthold happened to be standing in the doorway and noticed the lady's close examination of the cast.

"King John," she multered to herself, "King John," she mustered to nersel,
"I've never been in that;" then perceiving her manager she turned and inquired who wrote "King John."
"Madame," said the manager, drawing himself up to his full height, and looking himself up to with great dignity, "Shak-

Arcadian. There is some science, a little mystery, and a good deal of uncertainty about the game of croquet. The other day, when a Derroit clergyman made an evening call on one of his congregation, and was invited to play a game, he was only too glad, remarking that such social games served sometimes to place pastor and parishioner on a more friendly took.

and parishioner on a more friendly toot-ing. Before the first game was out a young lady hit him in the back with her mailet; he fell over an arch, and two of the players decided never to darken his church again on account of his cheating. In the midst of croquet you can't tell

VOLTAIC ARMADILLO

An Electro-Magnetic Remedy for Nervous Diseases. No shock or unpleasant sensation exp No snock of unpersont sensation experienced, but a constant electric current, giving to the nerves a gentle stimulus, reviving circulation, removing Congestion, Pain and Soreness. For Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Sciatica, Lumbago, Weak Back, Nervousness, Gene, al Deblitty, Imperfect Circulation, &c., &c., &c.

Sleeplessness from Overtaxation. I am happy to be able to inform you that I am still improving an i hope soon to be able to say "Richard is himself again." Since I have been using the Armadello, I have had no tromble in steeping. Can take a nap in the afternoon, and sleep from 9 until 6 next morning.

G. E. LOBDELL,

President Lobdell Car Wheel Co.

WILMINGTON, April 16, 1876.

The Band succeeded admirably in the case of chronic racumatism, for which I got it. I recommend it most cordially for succ.

JULY 14, 1875. New York, July 14, 1875.

DEAR SIR: I used your Voltale Armadille Misishand in two cases of Muscular Rusumm tism with caure success. I shad, with great pleasure, try it in similar cases in the future.

"Yours, &c.,

"CHAS E. HA, KLEY, M.D.,

"47 West Thirty-first street,

"We have numerous letters from physicians who have used the Armadillo. The efficacy of these Bands and Soles is clearly established in certain forms of Kneumatic Affections, Neuralgia, Weakness of the Back and Abdomen, etc. The Pulvermacher Chain, which has received the distinguished approbation of Sir Charles Locok and other European scientists, is largely used in England, and, as the Armadillo performs the same functions and presents the same principle, only in a more convenient form, there is no reason why it should not attain the celebrity sere."—Physician and Pharmacist, November, 1875.

"And many physicians of high repute, and some within our own knowledge, testify to the beneficial use of electro-magnetism by such means as Mr. Seibert has very ingeniously devised, and which we thus worthy of attention."—Sanitariaa, May, 1875.

WAUKERHA, Wie., Dec. 8, 1875. I have used the Armadillo for neuralgus in the head, its effect upon me was wonderful. It relieves me in a very lew minutes. I have been subject to this fearful disorder for many years, but have found nothing to equal year Flectro-magnetic remedy. I also use the Soles with great satisfaction. R. L. GOVE.

In a case of chronic and sub-acute arthritis my patient, a very intelligent young lady, has derived infinifely more benefit from you Band than from all the blistering, bandaging compressed sponges, &c., she endured at the hands of one of New York City's most eminent physicians. "HENRY T. BAHNSON, M.D. SALEM, N. C., June, 1875.

Thave used your Bands and Soles and End their in every way worthy the confidence of the Medical Profession.

J. W. TRUEWORTHY, M.D. MUNOSE, Ind., Oct. 13, 1870.

SEWING MACHINES.

Wheeler & Wilson's ROTARY-HOOK, LOCK-STITCH SEWING MACHINES

MORE THAN

1,000,000

Family Machines IN USE.

A Quarter of a Century's trial has Demonstrated their Superiority.

"Wheeler & Wilson's New No. o Machine must eventually supersede all others now known with which it comes in competition. We recommend for it the highest award which it is in the power of the Institute to bestow."-From the unanimous report of the five Judges of the American Institute, New York, 1874.

The Board of Managers unanimously approved the report, and recommended for this machine the Gold Medal of the Institute.

The Board of Direction unanimously approved this recommendation, and awarded the Gold Medal to Wheeler & Wilson, the only Gold Medal awarded for a Sewing Machine by the American Institute for many years.

The Austrian Official Report of the Vienna Exposit on pronounced it "the marvel of the Exposition," and added, "this universal machine sews the heaviest leather harness and the fluest gauze with a truly pearl stitch." The Grand Medal of Progress was awarded for it.

WHEELER & WILSON'S New No. 6 Sewing Machine.

We, manufacturers of Boots and Shoes, are using Wheeler & Wilson's New No. 6 Sewing Machine in all kinds of stitching on our work and confidently believe that it will supersede all others in this branch of manufactures, for the following reasons: 1. The work done by this machine is superior to that of any other in variety, amount, excellence and beauty. 2. This machine is more durable than any other of its class, requiring much less outlay for repairs and renewal of parts. 3. It does the cording or staying of button holes in a most elegant and substantial manner, without the expense of royalty. In short, because by the use of this machine we can turn out superior work at less coat than with any other.

SIGNED BY MANY. her It is fast superseding all other machines for leather work.

WHEELER & WILSON'S New No. 7 Machine,

Now for the first time introduced to the public, ranks in excellence with their famous No. 6 Machine, but has some modifications adapting it to special classes of work. The Tailor will find it as well suited to his work as is No. 6 to leather work. It might properly be termed the Tailor's Machine.

TESTIMONIALS.

The substantial excellence of the Wheeler & Wilson Sawing Machine, and its high anneaciation by those who are familiar with its practical working, are shown in the following testimonials from well-known firms:

From A. J. CLARK, prominent Shirt Manufacturer.] We use the Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine in the manufacture of Shirts, Collars and

Cuffs, as no other machine will do our work so well.

A. J. CLARK. From JOHN SHILLITO & CO., leading Dry

Goods Merchants of Cincinnati.] During the past ten years we have used over One Hundred Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machines in the manufacture of Ladies' Garments of every kind, including Heavy Clonks and Fine Underwear, and they have given entire satisfaction. For our work the Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine is unequaled.

ers of twenty-two years experience.] We are running the Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine No. 6, by steam power, at a speed of 700 stitches per minute on Ladies' and Misses' Fine Shoe Uppers, and find it superior to any other machine in the following partien)arat It will close seams with heavy silk in leather tighter, without puckering, than any machine we know. It will close leather seams with Marshall's Cabled Thread at above speed equal to the Howe Cylinder Machine.

It runs faster and makes a more regular stitch on fine leather than any machine we We believe it will prove a very durable machine, and when worn down may be repaired cheaper and better than the average class machine, STRIBLEY & CO.

We use and cheerfully recommend the Wheeler & Wilson No. 6 Sewing Machine as the best in use for Shoe Fitting. Our display of Ladies' and Misses' Fine Stices, at the Cincinnati Exposition of 1875 was Stitched and Fitted on these Machines.
